Editor's Notes

Welcome to the BT Register of Males for the 2008 – 2009 season albeit somewhat later than planned! I am hoping that we will be able to distribute the forms much earlier next year and that this will allow me more time for following up the loose ends. Thanks, as always, to those who sent their forms back to me this year.

2008 proved to be quite a challenging year for health issues and I think that 2009 will not be any easier as we see the advent of different Bluetongue strains moving up through Europe. I know that many people were restricted on movements for quite some months and this may have prevented a lot of breeders from being able to use their intended males. Also, we have seen some of the top BT breeders take a step back from breeding and the show ring and this will obviously have an effect on the number of top class males that are available in future years though, hopefully, their lines will be kept alive through the progeny of others.

The number of BT males moving into commercial herds has continued apace and the list is now quite lengthy! Rumour has it that the Givendale herd moved in its entirety to somewhere in the West Country but I have been unable to confirm if all the males moved with the herd – if anyone has any details I would be grateful for an update!

The list of deceased males is slightly shorter than in previous years but I was particularly sad to learn of the passing of Earthsong Lucifer who finally died at the grand age of 15½. I had almost begun to believe that he was immortal! With regard to my own herd, I was fortunate enough to take possession of Tetherdown Cherokee last season and managed to get several of my girls in kid to him before he died a few weeks ago. He was quite a character and will be sadly missed.

Thanks as always go to Charlie Peck for all his help and encouragement. Charlie also took on the mammoth task of producing the list of Sires of , Q and Milk Recorded goats this year – it is very much appreciated.

Once again, the breed is very well represented with several new Female Breed Champions and Sires of Merit. In addition, the Berkham Challenge Bowl was awarded to Dresden Duvernon and congratulations must duly go to Charlie Peck and Tim Baker.

Best wishes

Debbie Vernon
